IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF :

ROSE BERMAN, :

for an order dissolving the marriage entered into between herself and ABRAHAM BERMAN, :

- - - - -x

The petition of ROSE BERMAN respectfully shows to this Court and alleges:-

FIRST: That heretofore in the year 1915, the petitioner and the defendant intermarried in the Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, and that they thereupon took up their residence at 478 Rockaway Avenue, Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York.

SECOND: That thereafter and about three months from the date of their marriage, the defendant deserted your petitioner and betook himself to parts unknown, and failed to advise and inform your petitioner of his whereabouts, or of any reason for his sudden departure, or of any time that he intended to return.

THIRD: That at the time of the said marriage, your petitioner had known defendant for about three months, during which time the defendant had never informed your petitioner of the names or addresses of any of his relatives or friends or as to whether he had such relatives or friends living in this country, but the defendant did inform your petitioner that he had a mother living at Coney Island, Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York.

FOURTH: That more than five years have elapsed since the date of the disappearance of the defendant herein, during which time petitioner has heard no word from him, either directly or through indirect channels, nor has petitioner been able to trace him or discover his whereabouts, although she was exhausted all sources of possible information, and your petitioner verily believes that the defendant is dead.

FIFTH: That your petitioner has instituted inquiry among those people who were acquainted with him during the time of their marriage, and instituted inquiry as to the relatives and friends of the defendant, petitioner having in the meantime learned that the defendant's mother died in the year 1917, but failed to obtain any information leading to direct knowledge as to his present whereabouts, or to any sources from which defendant's activities could be traced or in any way learned.

SIXTH: That petitioner has enlisted the aid of her friends and relatives, and all those who knew the defendant at the time of his marriage with her, in an effort to discover his whereabouts, but although she has done everything at her command to obtain such information, same proved fruitless, and petitioner at present verily believes that the defendant is dead; petitioner being seriously handicapped in her search for defendant by the fact that she at no time knew the defendant's past history, nor his past connections, nor the names of his relatives and friends, so that she could not search in that direction.

SEVENTH: That at the time of the marriage of the parties hereto, petitioner and defendant resided in the County of Kings, City and State of New York, and petitioner still so resides within that County.

EIGHTH: That no decree of divorce has been obtained by petitioner against defendant in any county of this State, or any other State or County upon any ground whatsoever.

NINTH: That there is no issue of said marriage.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that a judgment be entered in her behalf and against the defendant for an absolute divorce, and that the bonds of matrimony between petitioner and defendant be forever dissolved, and that petitioner have such other and further relief as to this Court may seem just, fitting and proper.

Dated, December 26th, 1922.

That she is the petitioner herein; that she has read the foregoing petition and knows the contents thereof; that the same is true to her own knowledge, except as to those matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and that as to those matters she believes it to be true.
